ADVENT IN TERENCE

Pre-Christmas Events in Terento 8 - 17 of December 2017 We want to bring children, families and guests closer to rural culture and traditions on the topic of Christmas. The trail leads from the decorated village centre to the town hall with cookie baking for children, to the crib exhibition and to the Christmas market. Handicraft products are offered at different stalls on the playground. The Christmas experience continues along the trail lit by torchlights and candlelight with special light effects to the "Stockner Waldile" forest, where rural specialities are offered in traditional huts. Fairytales and stories for children are told around the campfire in front of a big Christmas crib and a petting zoo. Let us surprise you! www.terenten.com

THURSDAY: ON THE TRAIL OF WORLD WAR I

Mountain infantryman skiing is the great novelty of this year for all those who want to ski in the Dolomites. The location route leads through what used to be the Dolomites frontline, around the Col di Lana, the 'bloody mountain', which represents World War I. You pass by frontlines, tunnels and embrasures, built by Austro-Hungarian, German and Italian soldiers to defy the enemy in World War I and to survive in the high mountains. Passing through the most wonderful Dolomite landscapes, among the Pelmo, Cinque Torri, Tofana, Lagazuoi, Conturines, Setsas mountains and, for the untiring, the Gran Risa downhill run. Guided ski tour with bus service, skiing guide, ski bus, and horse-drawn sleigh from Capanna Alpina to Armentarola. With HOLIDAY PASS Kiens € 5.00, Other € 10.00, (Dolomiti Superskipass excluded). Booking by Wednesday 17 pm. (Dolomiti Superskipass required). Departure: Terenten 7.50 am, Hofer 8.00 am and Kiens 8.10 am

TUESDAY: SELLA RONDA – SKIING IN THE DREAMLIKE BACKGROUND OF THE LADIN VALLEYS

Already in those days, when there were only poor roads and no lifts, the Sella Group could be covered on skis. Since then, the name of the Sella Ronda route, connecting the inhabitants of the surrounding Dolomite areas over four passes, has been in Ladin (the language spoken here). This is a unique ski carousel amidst an extraordinary group of woods, rocky mountain peaks and snowy landscape with well-connected lifts and downhill runs. Experience the Sella Ronda with the bus

Relax and enjoy the wild nature and the silence far away from everyday hassle. Snow shoes are suitable for (almost) anyone and any age group. Experience this special way of walking. Allow your body a healthy balance, your soul the breathtaking view of the famous summits of the Dolomites and the mind of a totally different well being. Inscription: Tuesday until 5 pm at the Tourist Office. With HOLIDAY PASS Kiens € 5.00, Other € 10.00, Equipment: € 5.00 (snowshoes + hiking sticks). Departure: Terenten 8.30, Hofern 8.40, Kiens 8.50.

THURSDAY: ON THE TRAIL OF WORLD WAR I

Mountain infantryman skiing is the great novelty of this year for all those who want to ski in the Dolomites. The location route leads through what used to be the Dolomites frontline, around the Col di Lana, the 'bloody mountain', which represents World War I. You pass by frontlines, tunnels and embrasures, built by Austro-Hungarian, German and Italian soldiers to defy the enemy in World War I and to survive in the high mountains. Passing through the most wonderful Dolomite landscapes, among the Pelmo, Cinque Torri, Tofana, Lagazuoi, Conturines, Setsas mountains and, for the untiring, the Gran Risa downhill run. Guided ski tour with bus service, skiing guide, ski bus, and horse-drawn sleigh from Capanna Alpina to Armentarola. With HOLIDAY PASS Kiens € 5.00, Other € 10.00, (Dolomiti Superskipass excluded). Booking by Wednesday 17 pm. (Dolomiti Superskipass required). Departure: Terenten 7.50 am, Hofer 8.00 am and Kiens 8.10 am

Already in those days, when there were only poor roads and no lifts, the Sella Group could be covered on skis. Since then, the name of the Sella Ronda route, connecting the inhabitants of the surrounding Dolomite areas over four passes, has been in Ladin (the language spoken here). This is a unique ski carousel amidst an extraordinary group of woods, rocky mountain peaks and snowy landscape with well-connected lifts and downhill runs. Experience the Sella Ronda with the bus
Description: Monday until 5 pm at the Tourist Office. With HOLIDAY PASS Kiens € 5.00, Other € 10.00, excluded Dolomiti Superskipass (required). Departure: Terenten 7.50 am, Hofern 8.00 am, Kiens 8.10 am.
