TRANSALP TOUR

Europe's most popular and spectacular stage race for amateur cyclists is entering the 18th round: The TOUR Transalp 2020 leads from 21-27 June over seven stages across the Alps. For the first time the race will start in Bruneck (South Tyrol) - and end in Arco (north of Lake Garda) after 784 kilometres, 17,795 vertical metres and 17 mountain passes. Participants can expect new stage locations and famous passes as well as remote and bizarre routes that are hardly known.

KRONPLATZKING MTB RACE

From the legend of the Fanes Kingdom . . . Princess Dolasilla defeated her opponents with ease, making her an invincible heroine. Acclaimed by her people, the brave princess was brought to the Plan de Corones, where she was crowned by her father, the king, with the magnificent Rajetta, and so she became the queen of the Fanes Kingdom. The prime of the Fanes Kingdom had begun. Many, many years have passed since then, for too long a time the Fanes people had to wait for a new King. But now, hear ye, hear ye! The time of waiting has come to an end, a worthy successor is searched for! We call all proud riders on bikeback from all over the world, to compete in a bike-fight among their own kind, in order to find and celebrate the new King of the Fanes Kingdom! Saddle your bike - become the new KronplatzKING!
