JOVA BEACH PARTY

The 2019 Jova Beach Party will not be limited to simple live shows, but it will turn Italian beaches into a sort of event village, with concerts, meetings, presentations and a temporary shop.

On stage the music of Jovanotti, the hits of his career and his idea of party live in an experience that starts with the sun and ends in the moonlight. In short, the show in 2019 will be much more than a simple live. More than a stage, more than a stadium, more than a festival, much more than a concert.

KRONPLATZ ENDURO RACE

The trails of the Kronplatz region - sometimes completely natural, sometimes perfectly shaped - are a perfect scene for the final!

Some of the start lines can be reached by bike, others with a comfortable gondola ride. At the Kronplatz region the number of trails increases from year to year - therefore you can expect new trails in 2019 as well.

The scene at Kronplatz offers lots of metres descent - and the trails are changing from highspeed sections to rooty sections with tight corners within a few metres.

As in the whole series: The overall winner must be a rider with skills on all terrains and conditions!

THE DEVILS-RUN

The stamping of hooves will send a cold shiver down your spine. A wild mob dressed up with furs, long coats and horns on their traditional masks (Lorfn) are on their way. The Devils outfits are impressive but the wooden masks are an art in their own right. In these often very heavy hand crafted wooden "Lorfn" much imaginative detail can be seen. Together with rattling chains, deafening cows bells, fire spitting little devils and cheeky witches (Perchten) the spectacle and indeed the illusion is complete. The rite harks back to legend. One which tells the story of times of famine where young farmers, men from high up in the mountains dressed in animal furs and horns, went off on raids.
